Grant of loans for industrial and business purposes

2716. SHRI MUKHTIAR SINGH MALIK: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether the present system of loans granted to the industrial and business purposes is very defective and the payments are released by the banks without verification;

(b) if so, whether Government propose to amend the rules in regard to' the advance of loans; and

(c) if not, what are the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI JANARDHAN POOJARI): (a) Reserve Bank of India has reported that it is not correct to state that the present system of loans granted for industrial and business purposes is very defective or that payments are released by banks without veri-fication. By and large all banks have well defined systems and and procedures ofr grant of advances for various purposes and defects noticed could be attributed mainly to failure to comply with prescribed procedures in individual cases. Further, in many cases actual performance of borrowers falls short of projections made
